

Turkey Activity Packet

This is a free Turkey Activity Packet that includes one poem and 3 Literacy Activities. Make copies of the activities you choose to use with your students.

How to Be a Turkey Poem (page 3)

The is a "How to Be" Poem. Point out that each line starts with a verb + ing and is a fact about turkeys. After learning the poem, ask students if they can think of more and make a list on the board. After learning the poem students can do the actions while reciting the poem.

Making Sentences from the Poem: (page 4 or 5)

Each line in the poem starts with a verb +ing. Students will now choose 4 lines from the poem and make complete sentences. You can do this one to demonstrate what they are to do: They can use a singular noun or plural.

Example: Strutting in the woods.

Sentence: Turkeys strut in the woods.

Turkeys are strutting in the woods.

A turkey struts in the woods.

A turkey is strutting in the woods.

Writing Verbs about what Turkeys do: (page 6)

Students will write verbs about what turkeys do in the feathers.

Writing Adjectives about turkeys. (page 7)

Review adjectives with your students. Have them think of adjectives that describe turkeys. Then they will write 6 adjectives about turkeys in the feathers.
